GREENSBURG SHOP 'N SAVE LOCATIONS DONATE TO WESTMORELAND COUNTY FOOD BANK

--Local Owner Gives Money through SHOP 'n SAVE Turkey Promotion Just in Time for the Holidays--

PITTSBURGH, Pa.--November 11, 2009-- In the spirit of holiday giving, the Greensburg Route 66 and Pittsburgh Street SHOP 'n SAVE stores, owned by Ray Charley, will now offer customers the option to donate their free turkey vouchers to the Westmoreland County Food Bank. For every voucher donated by SHOP 'n SAVE, the food bank will receive a certificate of $20.

“Holiday giving is important to SHOP 'n SAVE and its loyal customers,” said Charley. “Our partnership with local charities such as the Westmoreland County Food Bank has enabled us to give back and make a difference for many families in our local communities.”

The SHOP 'n SAVE turkey promotion started Oct. 16 and will run until Nov. 18. Customers earn a voucher for a free Grade-A Frozen Turkey of up to 14 pounds by using their Perks card for every $250 spent during the promotion.

The donation entry boxes are located at the customer service counter in both stores. For additional information, please see store associate for details.
